

TEACHER'S SURVEY

18 TEACHERS INVOLVED

United in diversity

We are all different, but we can't judge people just by their skin color or their religion.

Sometimes the one who has a different skin color or they are different in any other way are victims of verbal or even physical aggressions or they are feeling lonely and not wanted.

We have to make a change and accept our differences, learn to appreciate them and most of all STOP judging.

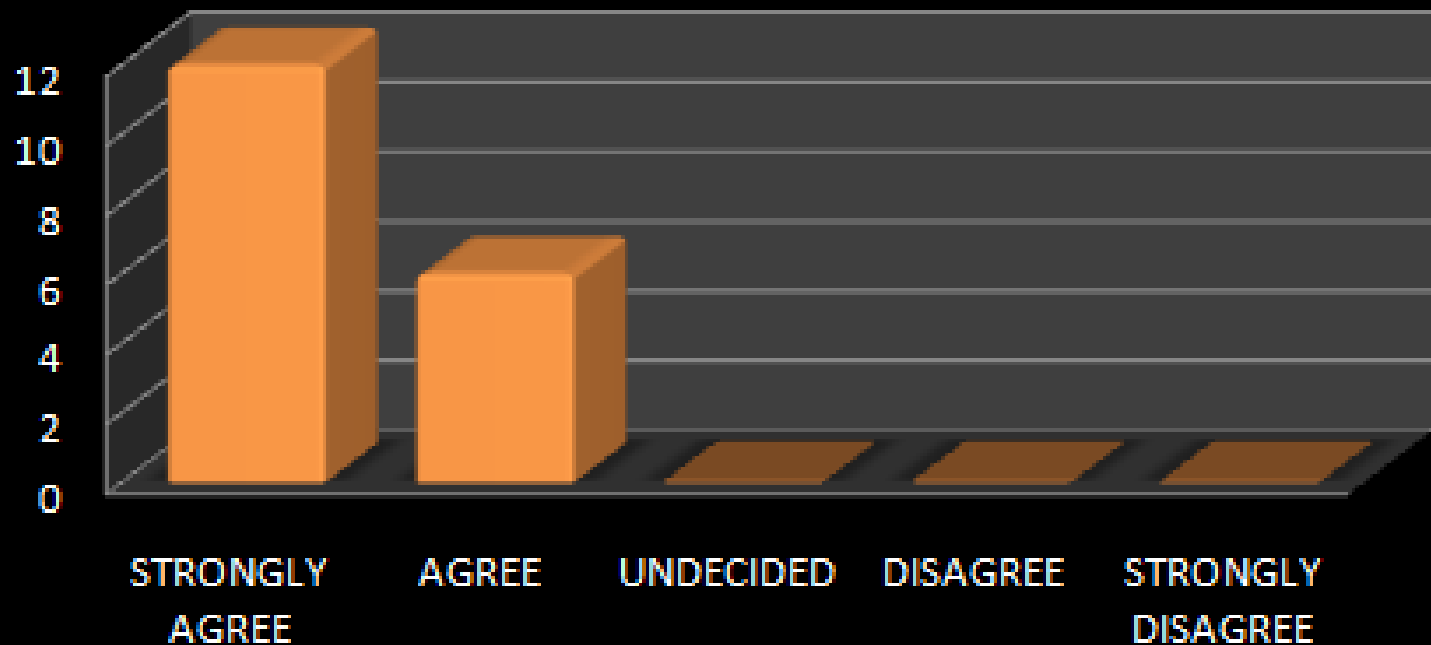

by Laura Yankovic V
DOLAC RIJEKA
CROATIA

Using the following scale please circle the number that best corresponds to your level of agreement with each statement:

	Strongly agree	Agree	Undecided	Disagree	Strongly disagree
1. I find teaching in a culturally diverse student group rewarding.	1	2	3	4	5
2. Teaching methods need to be adapted to meet the needs of a culturally diverse student group.	1	2	3	4	5
3. I think there is too little emphasis placed on teachers and pedagogics training regarding the multicultural issues and related problems.	1	2	3	4	5
4. Teachers have the responsibility to be aware of their students' cultural backgrounds.	1	2	3	4	5
5. Teachers shouldn't promote only one culture, religion, affiliation...	1	2	3	4	5
6. As classrooms become more culturally diverse, the teacher's job becomes increasingly challenging.	1	2	3	4	5
7. Teachers can learn a lot from their students who have a different religious, cultural and language backgrounds.	1	2	3	4	5
8. Multicultural education isn't of great importance for teachers and pedagogics .	1	2	3	4	5
9. Teaching students about cultural diversity can only create conflict in the classroom.	1	2	3	4	5
10. Being multiculturally aware is not relevant for the subject I teach.	1	2	3	4	5

Do you have any thoughts or comments about this survey, or about BIRDS project in general?
(Please use the back of this form if additional space is needed.)

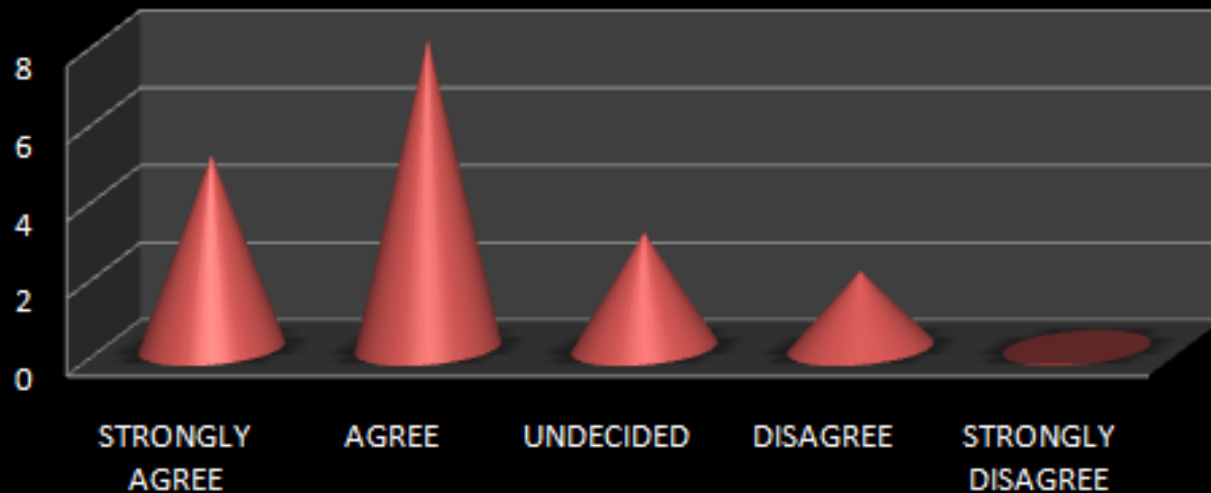

1. I find teaching in a culturally diverse student group rewarding.

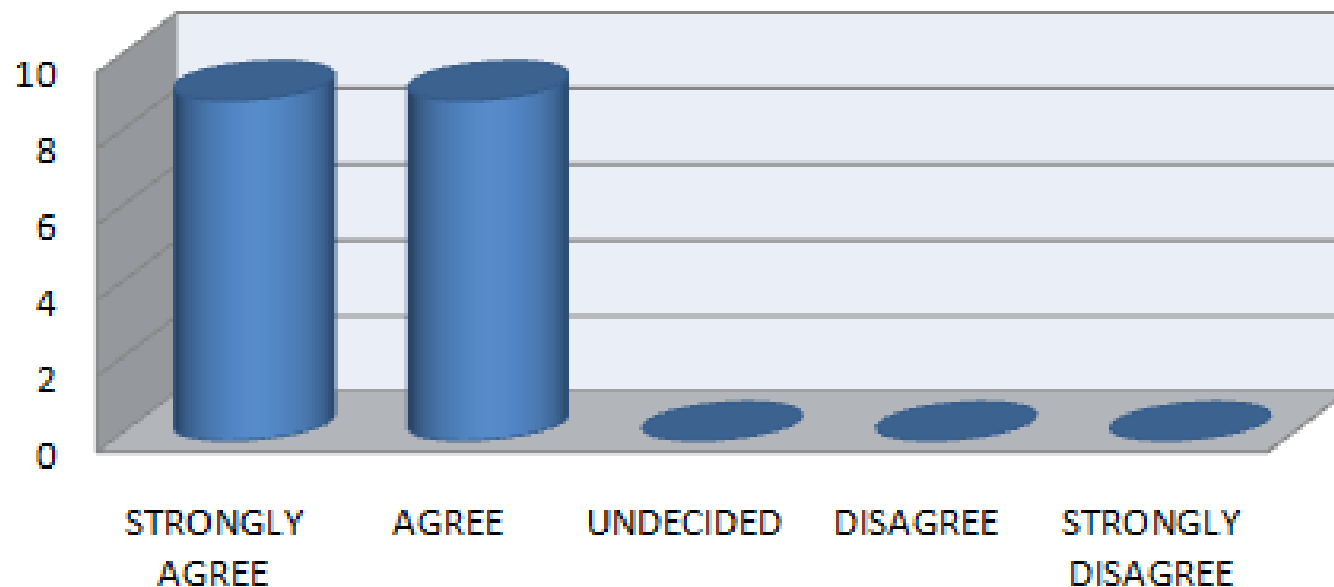

2. Teaching methods need to be adapted to meet the needs of a culturally diverse student group.

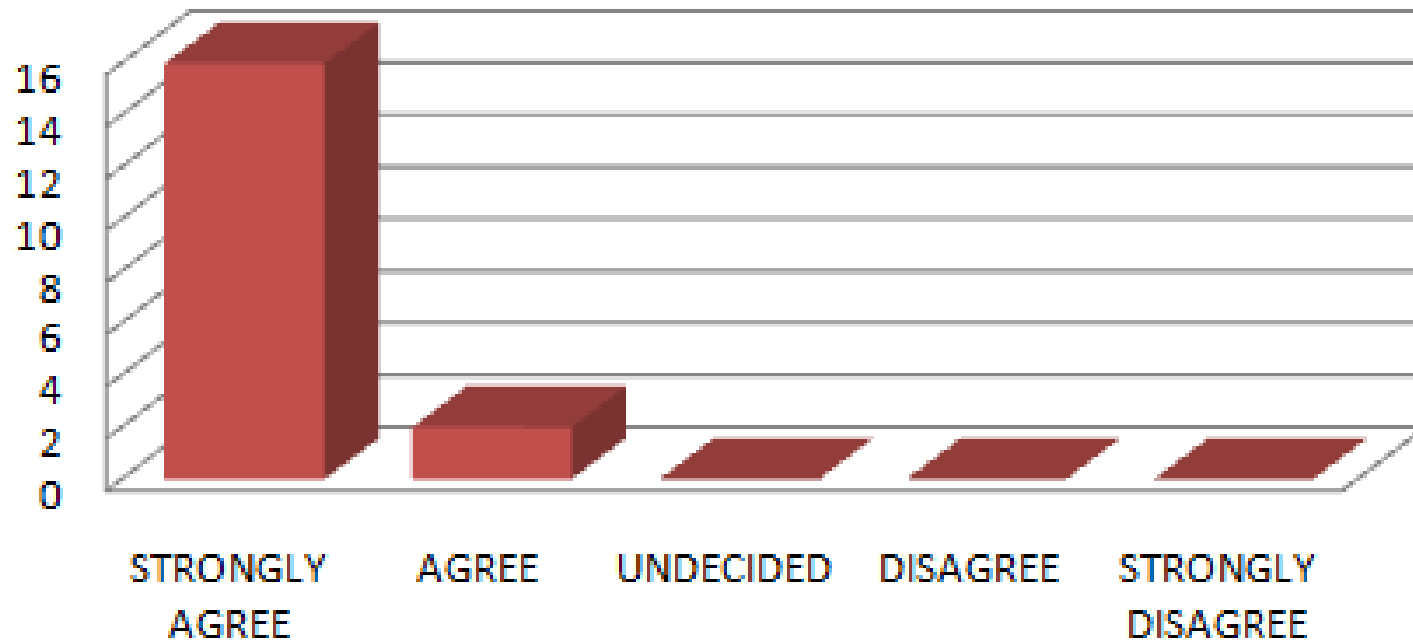

3. I think there is too little emphasis placed on teachers and pedagogists training regarding the multicultural issues and related problems.

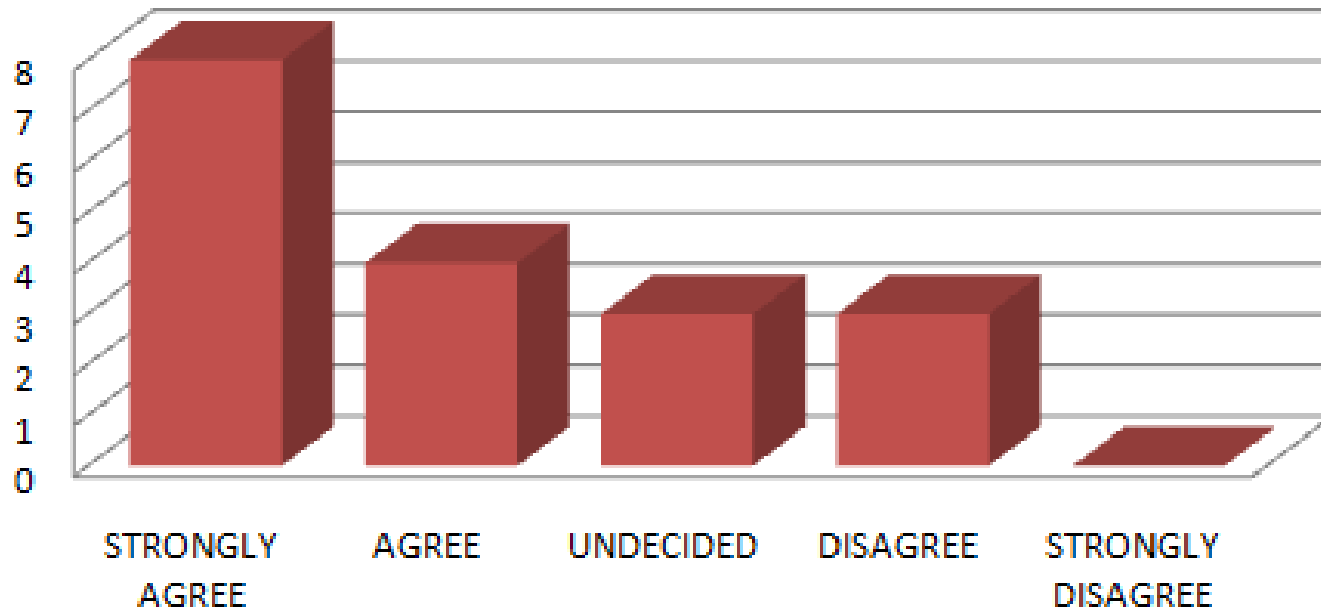

4. Teachers have the responsibility to be aware of their students' cultural backgrounds.

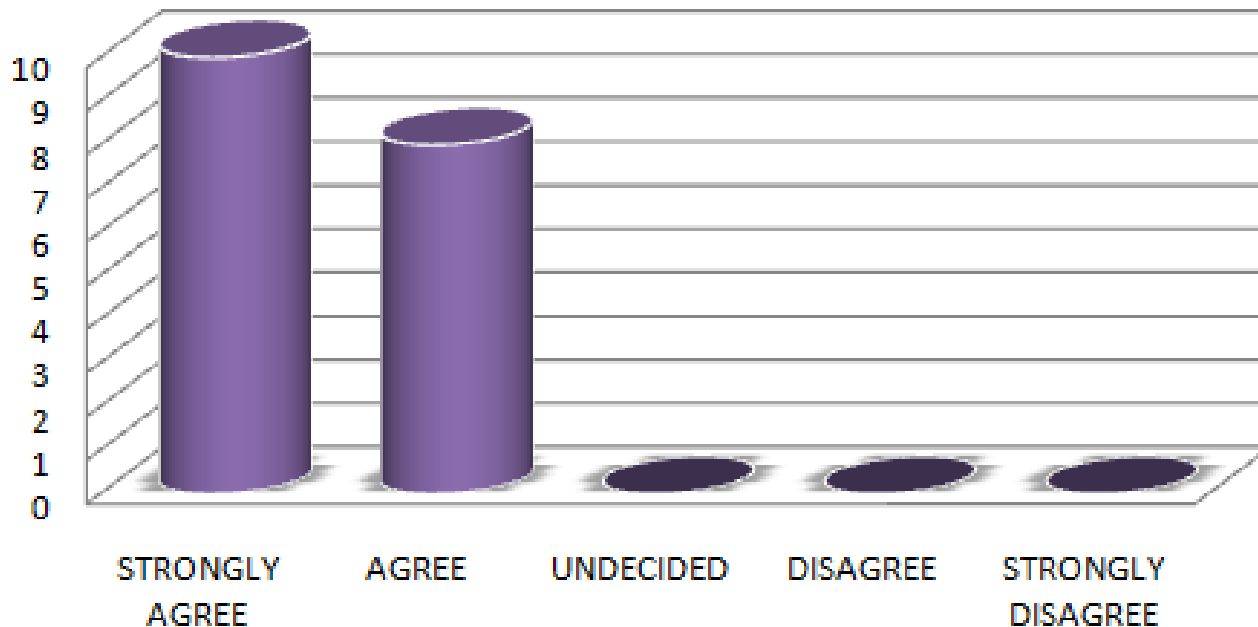

5. Teachers shouldn't promote only one culture, religion, affiliation...

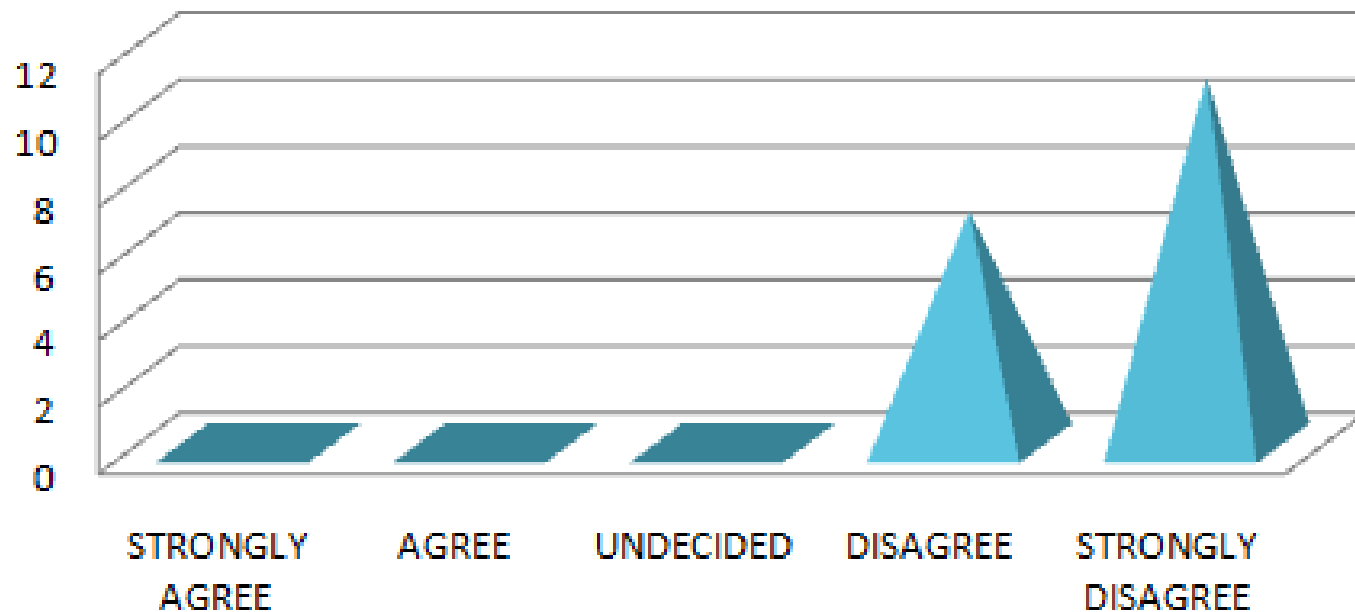

6. As classrooms become more culturally diverse, the teacher's job becomes increasingly challenging.

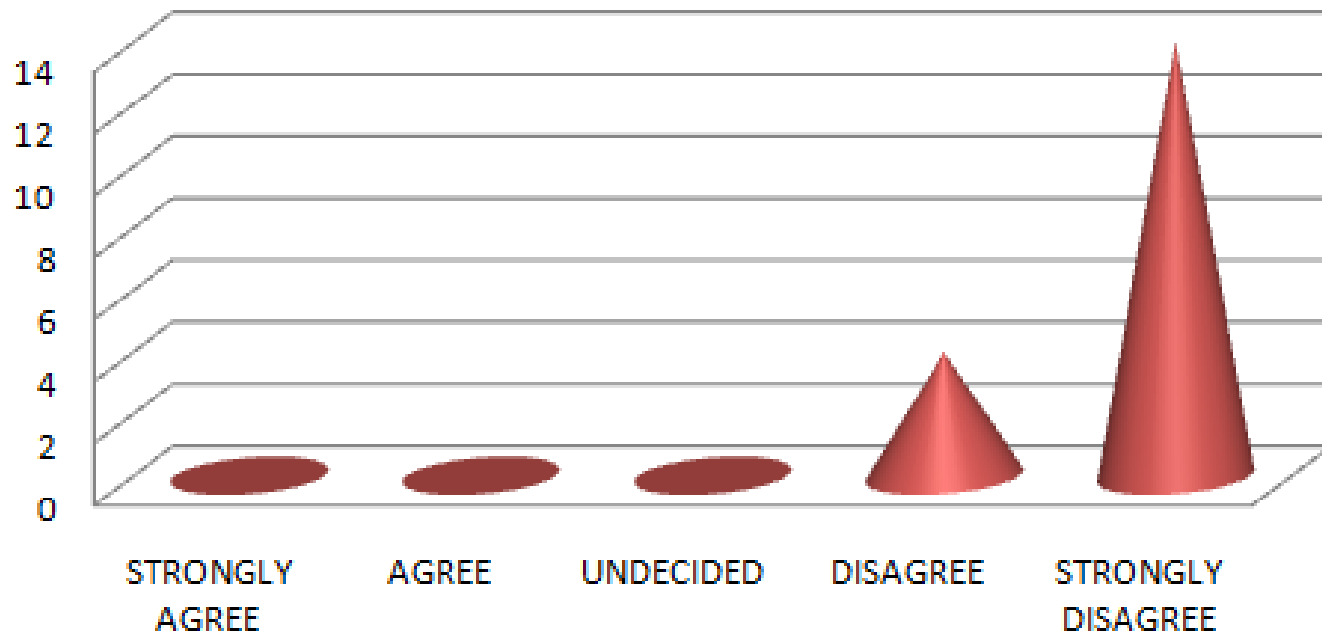

7. Teachers can learn a lot from their students who have a different religious, cultural and language backgrounds.

8. Multicultural education isn't of great importance for teachers and pedagogists.

9. Teaching students about cultural diversity can only create conflict in the classroom.

10. Being multiculturally aware is not relevant for the subject I teach.

